

Vancouver Circus School and VCS Events: A Legacy of Excellence in Entertainment

Vancouver, January 01, 2023 – Vancouver Circus School, a name synonymous with over 100 years of circus and trampoline expertise, proudly emphasizes its seamless connection with VCS Events, the distinguished events division of the school. This announcement comes as a celebration of over 15 years of producing spectacular events and creating more than 600 mesmerizing experiences for audiences worldwide.

A Tradition of Excellence

Founded by the esteemed Johnson Family, the Vancouver Circus School carries a rich legacy, boasting over a century of expertise in circus arts and trampoline. This profound heritage forms the backbone of VCS Events, ensuring that each event is infused with unparalleled skill, creativity, and professionalism.

Unique Capabilities and Facilities

VCS Events stands out in the industry with its access to a state-of-the-art training facility, part of the Vancouver Circus School. This facility is not just a training ground but a creative hub where specific acts and shows are meticulously crafted and honed. The school's legacy, combined with these modern training capabilities, enables VCS Events to offer truly unique and customized entertainment experiences.

Exclusive Talent and Global Connections

The relationship between Vancouver Circus School and VCS Events goes beyond shared facilities and history. VCS Events has exclusive access to a roster of talented artists trained by the Vancouver Circus School. These artists bring with them the school's rich tradition and innovative spirit. Moreover, VCS Events extends its reach globally, leveraging connections worldwide to bring only the best and most unique acts to their clients.

A Commitment to Spectacular Events

The fusion of Vancouver Circus School's heritage and VCS Events' contemporary approach to entertainment ensures every event is not just an act but an unforgettable experience. From intimate gatherings to grand scale productions, VCS Events is dedicated to delivering excellence, driven by the legacy of the Vancouver Circus School.

Contact:

*Travis Johnson, Owner and Co-Founder
Vancouver Circus School*

Email: travis@vancouvercircusschool.ca

Phone: (604) 544-5024

Website: www.vancircusschool.com

About Vancouver Circus School

Founded by the Johnson Family, the Vancouver Circus School is a beacon of circus arts and trampoline expertise with a history spanning over a century. The school is committed to training the next generation of circus talent while preserving the rich traditions of the art form.

About VCS Events

VCS Events, the events division of the Vancouver Circus School, specializes in creating bespoke entertainment experiences. With access to exclusive talent and a global network, VCS Events is your go-to source for extraordinary, one-of-a-kind events.